4. Education curriculum should solely concentrate on teaching health and biology. The school systems should leave teaching values and sex education to the churches and families.
8. Repeal would be good but difficult since money has already been committed and budgeted for future years.
9. As governor, I would push to enact a "Fetal Homicide Law" that would impose the same penalties on a criminal as would apply to the initial homicide. I cannot countenance not prosecuting such a venal act.
17. The values that I learned from my faith, family, education, and experiences all helped shape my decisions.
